

A Troop, 3d Squadron, 17th Cavalry (Silver Spurs) was part of the 12th Aviation Group during its service in Vietnam, primarily stationed at DiAn.

It was responsible for Air Cavalry support in the western part of III Corps Tactical Zone. On 20 July 1970 it was placed under the control of II Field Force, Vietnam. The Troop arrived in-country in Oct 1967 and was deactivated in April 1972. During its deployment it served in both III Corps & IV Corps and participated in both the 1970 & 1971 Cambodian incursions while based at Quan Loi. The Troop was awarded two Valorous Unit Awards during its deployment.